1995 FACT BOOK

The Tradition Continues

Horn Chen • Owner & President

An avid sports enthusiast with a superb business record, Mr. Horn Chen purchased the Ottawa Rough Riders Football Club in March 1995. His unusual capabilities, extensive knowledge and astute business skills make him an exceptional asset to the Rough Riders, the Ottawa sports community and the Canadian Football League.

Horn received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Business from the University of Illinois; his Masters Degree in Accounting from Roosevelt and became a Certified Public Accountant in 1963.

Over the years since, in the city of Chicago, Mr. Chen has developed numerous properties, many of which he owns today; including the Fine Arts Building, Rolling Meadows Shopping Centre, a 105-unit apartment building, and several downtown restaurants. He has also developed and owns three unique sports bars which highlight basketball, football and golf attractions and are popularly known in the Chicago are as "Sluggers Bar & Grill". In addition, Mr. Chen owns and operates the Eastern Star Trading Company, which is the largest importer of bamboo in North America.

Horn's new involvement in professional football compliments the many other North American sports franchises which he owns, including eleven professional teams; seven in the Central Hockey League, two in the East Cost Hockey League, the Indianapolis Ice of the International Hockey League and one of Roller Hockey International's new teams, the Ottawa Loggers.

Mr. Chen's home is in a Chicago suburb. He is 62 years of age and is married with four children and five grand children.

Al Howell
Governor & C.E.O. Business

Well known throughout North American sport circles as a sports broker, Al Howell joins the Riders as the Team Governor. He was instrumental in bringing Mr. Horn Chen to Ottawa last March to purchase the Ottawa Rough Riders Football Club. Al and his wife Marlene now reside in Ottawa with their two children - Teresa, age ten, and Andrew, age five. Sports has always been an important part of Al's life. He has played football, basketball and hockey, and has coached in several minor sports programs.

Garth Roberts
C.E.O. Corporate

Garth Roberts joined the Ottawa Rough Riders in March of 1995 as Chief Executive Officer and Legal Council to Mr. Horn Chen. Garth and his wife Dianne have been married for 27 years and live in Niagara-on-the-lake, Ontario, with their two children - Alison, age 20, and Neil, age 15. After graduating from the University of Guelph with a degree in Economics, Garth was employed for three years with General Motors of Canada in financial accounting, and as a statistician. Garth then attended the University of Western Ontario for his Bachelor of Laws degree, and subsequently attended York University (Osgoode Hall) for his Masters of Laws Degree. In addition, Garth attended McMaster University where he studied for a Masters of Business Administration Degree. After 20 years of practicing law in Southern Ontario, Garth has served as Vice-President for a small corporation in the art industry before joining Mr. Chen and the Ottawa Rough Riders. He also serves as the C.E.O to the Ottawa Loggers Roller Hockey Team. Garth and his family have been actively involved in hockey and figure skating.

Garney Henley
Director of Football Operations

Garney Henley joins the Ottawa Rough Riders bringing with him a wealth of experience and knowledge of the Canadian Football League. The CFL Hall of Fame member began his career with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 1960, where he would play his football for the next 16 seasons until the end of 1975. During his playing career, the versatile Henley was named to the All-Canadian All-Star Team ten times (nine times as a defensive back and once as a wide receiver), and won a Schenley Award as the CFL's Most Outstanding Player in 1972. Garney was also selected as the Eastern Division MVP in 1963. While playing with the Tiger-Cats, Garney was a full-time physical education professor and Assistant Athletic Director at the University of Guelph.

After a brilliant playing career, Garney became an assistant coach with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 1976. From 1977-'79, Garney was the Athletic Director, Head Basketball Coach and Assistant Football Coach at Mount Allison University. He maintained the same role at Brock University until 1988. In 1989, Garney rejoined the Hamilton Tiger-Cats for the next five seasons and was the Tiger-Cats' Special Teams Coordinator, as well as a defensive assistant. To date, Garney has participated in eight Grey Cup games (seven as a player and one as an assistant coach), earning four championship rings.

Last year, Garney took a break from professional football to spend some quality time with his three daughters, son and three grandchildren.

Bill Goodwin
Director of Player Personnel

A graduate of the University of Western Ontario and a Canadian citizen by choice, Bill was born 57 years ago in Wilson, North Carolina. He spent twenty-seven years as a high school English teacher, counselor and coach in southern Ontario. In addition to coaching at the high school level, he has served as Head Coach with the St. Catharines Rams (Sr. ORFU), the Niagara Regional Raiders Juniors (OFC), and Mount Allison University. He's been associated with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats for some time and was an assistant on their coaching staff in 1991. A past convener of the Ontario Football Conference and a clinician for the Ontario Amateur Football Association's certification program for coaches, Bill has resided for over twenty years in St. Catharines, which is still home to his two daughters and his six-month old twin grandsons. Bill joined the Riders to assist Director of Football Operations, Garney Henley, with recruiting for the 1995 season in mid-March.

Jim Gilstrap
Head Coach

After nine years as an assistant coach in the Canadian Football League, Jim Gilstrap becomes the 27th Head Coach in the modern era of the Ottawa Rough Riders.

Prior to taking the Head Coaching position in Ottawa, Jim was the Offensive Line Coach for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers who finished the season in first place in the Eastern Division with a record of 13 wins and 5 losses. Prior to Winnipeg, Jim coached the offensive line for Toronto for one season. He was with the San Antonio Riders of the World League in 1991-1992. In 1990, Jim was with Winnipeg helping them to a Grey Cup Championship. From 1987 to 1989, he was the Quarterbacks/Receivers Coach for the Toronto Argonauts. The Argos appeared in the Grey Cup in '87 and had a 14-4 record in '88. Jim Began his CFL coaching career with Saskatchewan in 1984.

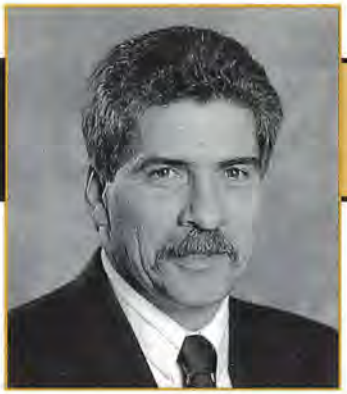

Prior to making his jump to the pro ranks, Jim coached college football for 18 seasons from 1966 to 1983. During that time, he coached at six schools including Fort Hays State University where he posted a 20-11-1 head coaching recorded over three seasons. Jim was also an assistant at Western Michigan University, Case-Western Reserve University, Kansas State University, Edinboro State College and Illinois State University.

Jerry Keeling
Offensive Coordinator

Jerry Keeling was duly recognized in 1989, when he was elected to the Canadian Football League Hall of Fame for his outstanding efforts on both sides of the ball during his fifteen seasons in the CFL. Jerry played in 229 games as both a defensive back and quarterback. He began his pro career in Calgary in 1962, where he played until the end of the 1972 season. While with Calgary, Jerry led the Stampeders to three Grey Cup appearances: against Ottawa in 1968; against Montreal in 1970; and against Toronto in 1971 when he earned his first championship ring. After 11 seasons in Calgary, Jerry joined the Ottawa Rough Riders in 1973, and again was a part of a championship season as the Riders defeated the Eskimos and won the Grey Cup. Jerry finished his playing career in 1975 with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats. Along with his four trips to the Grey Cup, Jerry was named to the CFL All-Star team in 1964, '65 and '67, and was a Western All-Star from 1964 to 1968.

Jerry moved from the gridiron to the sidelines as he worked as an assistant coach in the CFL for 10 years, including 1981 when he was the Quarterbacks and Receivers Coach for the Rough Riders, the year the team last played in a Grey Cup game.

Dick Adams
Defensive Coordinator

Well known in Ottawa football circles, Dick returns to the Riders after an eight year absence. A standout punter, punt returner and defensive back at Miami of Ohio University, he starred with the Rough Riders for five seasons in the '70s (1972-'76). A high school head coach in Ohio for a season before coming to Ottawa, he returned to coaching as an assistant for two seasons at Carleton University, immediately following his playing career.

In 1981, Dick was an assistant coach at Mount Allison University, then took a similar position on the University of Ottawa Gee Gees' staff in '82. His professional coaching career began the following season as Defensive Secondary Coach of the Calgary Stampeders. He first came back to the Ottawa Rough Riders as Special Teams Coach and Director of Player Personnel in 1984, and stayed the following two seasons as Defensive Secondary Coach. Dick then held the same position with the Saskatchewan Roughriders for five seasons. The Defensive Coordinator and Defensive Ends Coach at Murray State University in Kentucky for the '92 season, he has spent the past two years as Head Coach at Bethel College in McKenzie, Tennessee. The 47 year-old Adams and his native Ottawan wife, Catherine have three children; Rachel, Daniel and Chelsey, all born in Ottawa and all soon to set up home in the Nation's Capital once again.

Bob Swift
Offensive Line Coach

Bob joins the Rider coaching staff for his third time. After starting his career in charge of Saskatchewan Roughriders' offensive line for two seasons (1983-'84), he first came to Ottawa and served as Offensive Line Coach here for the '85 and '86 seasons. The next year, he joined the Alouettes in Montreal for their season that never was, and when the team folded Bob spent the season as Offensive Coordinator/O-line Coach at Upsala College in New Jersey. In '88, it was back to the CFL and back to Ottawa where, under two different head coaches in the one season, Bob instructed the defensive line and the offensive line, while also serving as Special Teams Coach. He continued to coach special teams when he moved to Edmonton for the '89 season, and also took on the duties of Linebacker Coach. Bob's last stop in the CFL was Calgary for the 1990 and '91 seasons, and again in those years he was in charge of the offensive line and special teams. Bob has spent the last three years enjoying life back home in Pennsylvania while coaching high school football. Bob enjoyed an outstanding 14 year CFL playing career, which started when he was drafted by the B.C. Lions in 1964 and rushed that rookie year for 1,054 yards and 11 touchdowns leading his team to it's first ever Grey Cup championship. He played with Toronto as a running back as well, but while there he shifted to the offensive guard position for a couple of years and then completed his varied playing career as the starting offensive centre of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers from 1970-'77. He was named All Canadian yearly from 1971 to 1974. Bob has been honoured with membership in the Province of British Columbia Sports Hall of Fame and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers' Hall of Fame. The Swifts; Bob and Sandra, are the parents of three young adults; Joelle, Bobby and Jonathan, who plays as outside linebacker at Temple University.

Dave Hochtritt
Defensive Line Coach

Dave comes to Ottawa after coaching the defensive line and special teams in Winnipeg last season. His coaching career began almost 30 years ago as Defensive Coordinator and Line Coach for the 1966 season at Macalester College in St. Paul, Minnesota. He then spent ten years as Defensive Coordinator at the University of Wisconsin, Oshkosh before taking over as Head Coach for seven years (1977-'83). Since that time, Dave has switched roles back and forth between coaching and scouting. He was a guest coach with the Toronto Argonauts in '86 and '87, coached both lines for the New York Knights of the Arena Football League in '88, and was Offensive Line Coach at the University of Wisconsin, Stevens Point in '91. For two years in both the eighties and nineties, Dave scouted high school players for American colleges. A graduate of the University of Northern Colorado, Dave is the father of two daughters and keeps a home, with his wife Christy, in Wisconsin.

Mike Murphy

He is a graduate of William Jewell College in Liberty, Missouri and earned his Masters in Science at Iowa State. He was a Graduate Football Assistant at Iowa State, the Linebackers & Special Teams Coach at Arizona Western College in Yuma, and has served the Winnipeg Blue Bombers as a Training Camp Guest Coach of Running Backs and as a Scouting Assistant. Media Guidelines

Regular Season Practices
Interviews may take place any time until 30 minutes prior to scheduled team meetings and immediately following practice. Interviews may not take place during practice. The locker room will remain open on a regular practice day for one and a half hours, until 30 minutes prior to scheduled team meetings. At this point all members of the media must leave the locker room. The Rough Riders will also provide access to Alumni Hall, second floor of the Rough Riders Clubhouse, for those members of the media who do not wish to conduct the interview in the locker room. Alumni Hall will be open for the same duration as the locker room. Media members are required to check in daily with Gary Page, Director of Media Relations & Travel, prior to entering the locker room.

Head Coach Jim Gilstrap will be available on a daily basis between 12:00 noon and 12:30 p.m. in his office, with the exception of the day before and the day of a game. If an interview is required outside of this half hour time frame please contact Gary Page so that all parties may be accommodated.

Day Before Game Day
A press conference involving both Jim Gilstrap and the visiting Head Coach will be held on the Second Floor of the Rough Riders Clubhouse the day before the game. Dates and times to be announced.

Post Game
All media members must remain outside of the locker room for a maximum of 15 minutes after the end of the game. After the 15 minute "Cool Down" the locker room will be open to accredited media for a 30 minute time period. During this 30 minute time frame the Club will do its best to ensure that the players do not disrobe. At the end of this time frame the media will be asked to leave the locker room so that the players may continue to shower and dress. If additional time is required to complete the interview, the media member may request that the said player accompany him/her outside of the locker room in order to complete the interview.

Head Coach Jim Gilstrap will be available for interview immediately following the 15 minute "Cool Down". Location TBD.

Game Day Accreditation
Application for accreditation must be made 48 hours prior to game time. Please contact Gary Page at (613) 235-5554 or fax: (613) 563-0246.

OTTAWA ROUGH RIDERS

HISTORICAL FACTS

1995 FACT BOOK

On September 16, 1867, there was a game played between two teams (not organized clubs) named the Rough Riders and the Senators. The Rough Riders apparently named for the lumberjacks who rode down the rapids of the Ottawa River.

On September 19, 1876, a meeting was held at the Russell Hotel for the purpose of organizing the Ottawa Football Club. Four days later, on September 23rd, the Rough Riders played their first game on Cartier Square against Aylmer. But it was not until a year later on May 12th. 1877, that Ottawa would host its first game against an outside team when the Britannia Football Club visited the Nation's Capital.

On January 4th, 1883, the Ontario Rugby Football Union was formed. The Ottawa Rough Riders entered the Conference and were defeated 9-7 by the Toronto Argonauts in the first championship game.

In 1907, the Rough Riders entered the Club into what was known as the Big 4 which grew out of an amalgamation between the Hamilton Tigers and the Toronto Argonauts of the Ontario Union and the Montreal Football Club of the Quebec Union.

On December 11, 1909, following an invitation from the New York Herald Newspaper, the Hamilton Tigers and the Ottawa Rough Riders played an exhibition game of Canadian Football in New York City at Van Courtland Park. The Tigers won 11-6 before 15,000 fans. That same year, Lord Earl Grey, the Governor General of Canada, donated a trophy to be awarded to the champions of the Canadian Rugby Football Union.

The Ottawa Football Club continued to grow with the League throughout the years witnessing changes in the rules: playing squads were reduced from 15 to 14 men in 1902, and from 14 to 12 men in 1905; touchdowns were increased from 4 to 5 points in 1904.

In 1924, the club changed its name from the Rough Riders to the Senators following a merger with the St. Bridgit's Club and ironically won its first Grey Cup in 1925 as the Ottawa Senators. In 1926, Head Coach Dave McMann led Ottawa to its second Grey Cup victory in as many years. Prior to the start of the 1927 campaign, Ottawa returned to its original name - the Rough Riders.

Since their second championship in 1926, the Ottawa Rough Riders went on to win 7 more titles winning a total of 9 Grey Cups - 1925, 26', '40, '51, '60, '68, '69, '73, and '76.

Since the inception of the Football Club, several members of the Ottawa Rough Riders have earned a place in the Canadian Football League's Hall of Fame.
